Unclaimed property – what's it all about? Find out how to comply with your state laws and prevent costly state audits.

How does your company account for uncashed payroll and accounts payable checks? How does your company handle aged customer credits? Do you have unclaimed dividends, gift certificates or unidentified remittances that have not been claimed by the owner? These items may represent unclaimed property liabilities.

As states struggle to meet their annual fiscal responsibilities, unclaimed property has emerged as a new and popular avenue for increasing public revenue collections. Unclaimed property compliance is required of all governmental agencies, companies in all industries, regardless of size or location. Compliance is a hot topic – therefore, it's critical for your organization's financial well-being to ensure full compliance with state unclaimed property laws. Attend this seminar and get an extensive overview of all aspects of unclaimed property.
